

Ms. Wahba has been a division vice president of finance for Corning Incorporated since 2018 , holding multiple finance leadership roles. Prior to joining Corning, she had more than 25 years of financial experience at Electronic Data Systems / Hewlett Packard / Hewlett Packard Enterprise.

Ms. Wahba has been the finance lead on many start-up contracts, business turnarounds, and process improvements and has experience negotiating, running, and improving complex global contracts. She is also currently the lead for talent development for the Corning global finance function.

Ms. Wahba started her career as a Commercial Casualty underwriter with Aetna and has also held positions at Xerox and Sara Lee.

In addition to being Treasurer for STN she is also on the Board of Directors of Bampa's House, a comfort care home serving Steuben, Chemung, and Schuyler counties.

Ms. Wahba holds a Bachelors of Business Administration from St. Bonaventure University and an MBA from the University of Rochester Simon School of Business.