

Marcia D. Weber, Director

Ms. Weber retired in 1998 from her position as Executive Director of Southern Tier Central Regional Planning and Development Board (STC), a position she held since 2003. Before that time, Ms. Weber worked at STC since 1978 in positions of increasing responsibility.

As Executive Director, Ms. Weber oversaw a three-county agency working to benefit federal, state, and local government, business and industry, and not for profit organizations. STC's program areas included economic development, land use and environmental planning, transportation, human services, local government services, computer technology assistance, geographic information systems (GIS), and flood recovery and mitigation. Among her other responsibilities, Ms. Weber has been engaged in telecommunications planning for over 30 years and was instrumental in the creation of the Southern Tier Network.

Over the years, she has served on many boards of directors throughout the region. Ms. Weber currently serves as chair of the Southern Tier Network Board of Directors and serves on the Painted Post Planning Board and the Nantucket Conservation Foundation Board of Trustees.

Ms. Weber received a Bachelor's of Arts from Tufts University and a Master's Degree in Education.
